

Undergraduate Admission Requirements

Whether you're returning to school to earn the degree you've always wanted or you're a community college student looking to transfer, Palo Alto University is here to help you reach your potential.

Students may transfer to one of PAU's Bachelor degree completion programs after they have completed the following requirements:<sup>1</sup>

- Earned 90 quarter units or 60 semester units of college-level transferable coursework from an accredited two-year or four-year institution.
- Completion of the CSU/IGETC General Education Breadth Requirements with a grade of C or better.<sup>2</sup>
- Maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 or above.

<sup>1</sup>Conditional Admission: Applicants who are currently in attendance at another institution may be conditionally admitted to Palo Alto University.
